Doc checking this morning to see if he can leave tomorrow I asked him if he will up to it to race next week he said no animal or human going to stop him being there as he wants the Title back Matt was National Champion in 2008 in Leopard Heavy. (And thus goes into the 2009 Nationals as defending Champion)

Thanks again Col, I can see why he wants to be there again, great picture (You might find that he will go scuba diving in his race outfit next time – safer!)
